

Whereas, the people of the world in these trying times require above all else occasions for friendship and understanding, and among the most telling things which influence people of other countries are the acts of individuals and not those of governments; and

Whereas, experiences afforded by the Olympic games make a unique contribution to common understanding and mutual respect among all peoples; and

Whereas, previous Olympic games have proved that competitors and spectators alike have been imbued with ideals of friendship, chivalry, and comradeship and impressed with the fact that accomplishment is reward in itself; and

Whereas, this nation wishes to express its desire that all men and women on Olympic delegations from every country throughout the world are welcome to the United States of America for these Olympic games; and

Whereas, this nation wishes to make the arrivals and departures of all concerned as convenient and expeditious as possible: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, the President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation welcoming all Olympic delegations from throughout the world authorized by the International Olympic Committee and asking them to come and actively participate in the 1976 Olympic games, if they are to be held in the cities of Los Angeles and Denver, and to pledge to all nations and authorized Olympic delegations that the United States will provide appropriate entry procedures assuring convenient arrivals and departures.
